

The Fr Hugh Ross SJ Memorial Scholarship

On the occasion of the 125th anniversary of the founding of St George's College a scholarship to the memory of Fr Hugh Ross SJ is to be established to allow St George's scholars to study at the University of Cape Town (UCT). The scholarship will provide full funding for fees and accommodation for 4 years allowing the candidate to complete a three-year degree and one-year honours/masters or a four-year Bachelor's degree.

The first scholarship is expected to be awarded to a qualified candidate in the Class of 2021.

The Scholarship will be awarded by Gratia International a UK registered charity which supports tertiary education at African Universities. All donations received explicitly for the scholarship will be exclusively used for that purpose. St George's College will administer the application process and Gratia International will establish the scholarship with UCT to whom the funds will be paid directly.

All donations should be made to:

Gratia International Limited (The Charity Commission registration number 1122300)

Barclays Bank Account No. 20-90-74 20446173

Swiftbic BUKBGB22
